Cherry Blossom Concert

Presented by Strathmore

Thursday, March 29, 2007 at 7:30 PM
 Mansion

Yoshio Kurahashi, shakuhachi (vertical bamboo flute)
 Ayako Kurahashi, koto and sangen (three-stringed instrument)
 Miyuki Yoshikami, koto

A beautiful evening in early spring, when the blossoms begin to appear: the perfect time to enjoy the exquisite, graceful sounds of these traditional Japanese instruments. The evocatively titled songs include "Haru no Kyoku" ("Spring Poems"), "Haru no Yoru" ("Spring Evening"), "Sanya" ("Three Valleys"), and "Kaze no Uta" ("Music of the Breeze"). Strathmore is honored to present this ensemble led by one of Japan's great shakuhachi masters, Yoshio Kurahashi.

Parking for Music in the Mansion is in the Mansion Lot, entrance off of 10701 Rockville Pike.
