Shakuhachi (traditional Japanese flute) recital and guided exhibition tour of new Museum exhibitions

Friday, September 19, 2008, 10:30 a.m.

Flutist Yoshio Kurahashi, who specializes in the traditional Japanese Shakuhachi flute, is arriving in Israel as part of an international tour. This is a unique opportunity to experience the special sound of the Shakuhachi flute, and to listen to Yoshio Kurahashi's related explanations.

Entrance fee: NIS 40

Fee for Friends of the Museum: NIS 36 (open subscription may be used)

This event is supported by the Israel-Japan Friendship Association
