A Celebration of Japanese Traditional Music (Shakuhachi)

By Master Yodo Kurahashi

at BUEI

Followed by a Japanese Buffet
at Harbourfront Restaurant
in an enchanted Japanese decor

Sunday 28th February 2010

5.30 PM

Yodo Kurahashi II is considered to be one of the foremost masters of Shakuhachi in Japan today.

As a solo player, Kurahashi has premiered and showcased some of the most exciting music written for Shakuhachi in this century.

He has traveled around the world performing Shakuhachi.

His powerful performance commands the full attention of his audience for a full-length concert. He takes them deeply into the zen music of old Japan with an authority that is profoundly moving and entralling.
